1. G.O (Ms) No.67, Labour and Employment Department, dated 20.04.2015.

ORDER:

In Government order first read above orders have been issued prescribing 90 days time limit for disposal of applications for registration of Trade Unions under the Trade Unions Act, 1926.

2. In the letter second read above, the Government of India have stated that the time frame notified by the Government of Tamil Nadu for disposal of applications for registration of Trade Unions in the Government order first read above exceeds the duration of 45 days for disposal on which a consensus has already been arrived with Trade Unions and therefore requested this Government to make necessary changes in the executive order/amendment, so that the time limit for disposal of application for registration of Trade Union in any case does not exceed 45 days.

3. In the letter third read, the Commissioner of Labour has also requested to issue fresh order prescribing 45 days time limit for disposal of application for registration of Trade Union by superseding the orders issued in Government order first read above.

4. The Government after careful consideration, accept the proposal of the Commissioner of Labour and in supersession of earlier orders issued in Government order first read above, hereby order that the Registrars of Trade Unions should dispose the application for registration of Trade Union, within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of such application if he/she is satisfied that the application for registration satisfies all the requirements for registration.

5. The Commissioner of Labour is directed to send necessary proposal along with draft notification to amend the Tamil Nadu Regulations, 1927 under the Trade Unions Act, 1926 (Central Act XVI of 1926) to incorporate necessary provisions prescribing time limit for disposal of applications for registration of Trade Unions.
