Message

I am delighted to know that the Central Vigilance Commission has decided to organise Vigilance Awareness Week- 2025. The occasion coincides with the birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel (31st October) from 27th October to 2nd November 2025 with the theme "Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility".

Integrity, transparency, and accountability are the foundations of good governance and are essential for building a corruption-free vibrant India. This year's theme aptly emphasizes that vigilance is not the responsibility of a select few; rather, it is a collective duty shared by every citizen, public servant, and organization—both Government and private.

The observance of this week provides an opportunity to reaffirm our commitment to ethical conduct, promote awareness against corruption, and encourage active participation of one and all. Honesty and dedication at work are integral to the Hon'ble Prime Minister's vision of Viksit Bharat where fairness and transparency guide every action.

I extend my best wishes to the Central Vigilance Commission for its continued efforts in fostering a culture of integrity and for the successful conduct of Vigilance Awareness Week 2025.

Jai Hind!
