

No. C-29021/01/2016-CLS-II (Vig.)
Government of India
Ministry of Labour and Employment

New Delhi, dated the 16th Feb., 2017

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject :- Submission of annual Immovable Property Return of CLS Gr.-"A"
Officers - reg.

In terms of Rule 18 of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964, the Immovable Property Return (IPR) is required to be furnished by the CLS Officers every year by 31st January. Non-submission of the APR within the stipulated time period leads to denial of vigilance clearance to the CLS Officers for empanelment, deputations and cadre clearance etc. and may also attract appropriate action as per the said rule.

2. It is observed that AIPRs of some of the Officers for previous years are not available /up-loaded on the website of the Ministry. Therefore, all CLS Gr.-"A" Officers are requested to please check availability of their AIPRs for the last five years on the website of the Ministry and submit the AIPRs for the relevant years, if not available on the website of the Ministry immediately, failing which action as per rules will be initiated against the defaulting officer.
